Building Excitement and Support with our Kapawe'no Muskwa Teams

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – Support for our Kapawe'no Muskwa teams has grown during both the early morning and late evening games of the tournament. Comedian Don Burnstick, former Oilers coach and multiple Stanley Cup winner Craig MacTavish, along with many enthusiastic parents, contributed to a successful first day. Our goal is to expose younger students to well-organized hockey and rally behind our elite programs as they compete for the provincial title.

As our teams take the ice, there's a palpable excitement in Kapawe'no, Edmonton and territory thanks to their exceptional performance. Their skills in passing, shooting, and sportsmanship set excellent examples for our aspiring hockey players, fostering growth and support within our system at Buffalo Bay Hockey Academy.

The Hereditary Chief addressed the crowd, commending the students and staff for their hard work and the collective effort to elevate KFN Collegiate's profile. Hard work is the heartbeat of progress, driving us to new heights at Kapawe'no First Nation and KFN Collegiate. Together, we elevate not just the schools, but the hopes and dreams of an entire Nation.

Superintendent Boh Kubrakovich-Kiniw highlighted the event's significance and the long-term vision of creating this annual tradition. "It's been great from the beginning steps to now this wow". They also presented the 7 Grandmother and Grandfather Teaching Awards to student athletes, emphasizing dedication and nation spirit. The new Buffalo Bay Academy will really be an amazing step for 2025/26 school year.

Jorden Thiessen expressed the excitement of the day, highlighting her role in running the scoreboard and announcing the thrilling game moments. "Seeing the nation support was truly inspiring," Thiessen shared. He thanked everyone involved for their dedication and looked forward to expanding student involvement in future events, offering roles like photographers, door greeters, and more.

The Black and Gold Game marks a milestone in KFN Collegiate's journey, setting the stage for future growth and community involvement in athletics.

This year's annual awards we presented after the Muskwa Sr sang an honour song and Grade 5/6's Iskwew sang their song to the following;

- | | |
|---|--|
| • Jaze Courtorielle – Sakihitowin – Love | • Calvin Bellerose – Iynisiwin – Wisdom |

| • Faith Soosay Bellerose – Sohkitewin – Courage | • Sam Halcrow – Tapwewin – Truth |
| • Sam Lay – Kwayaskitatsowin – Honesty | |

A certificate of excellence along with the beaded spirit animal of each award.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Kapawe'no Muskwak U15E Claim Bronze

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory - The excitement of Sunday Funday continued on April 6, 2025, at Millwoods Arena, where our Kapawe'no Muskwak U15E team faced off against Sunchild. In a nail-biting showdown, our team emerged victorious with a thrilling shootout victory.

The game commenced with a surge of energy from the Muskwak team. In the first period, we saw a strong start with Calin Dion opening the scoring at 11:42, quickly followed by Holter Lefthand at 7:35, putting us up 2-0. It was a great display of the teamwork and precision our players are known for. In the second period, Markus Willier extended our lead with a stunning goal at 9:27, assisted by Zane Letendre. However, Sunchild responded with two quick goals, narrowing the score to 3-2. Tensions heightened in the third period as Matthias Willier showcased his skill with another goal, assisted by both Zane Letendre and Markus Willier. Yet, Sunchild wasn't ready to back down, tying the game late by pulling their goaltender for an extra attacker. Setting the stage for overtime and eventually a shootout, where Matthias Willier sealed the game with a decisive win, 5-4.

Kapawe'no Muskwak Female U13 Come up Short in First Game

Edmonton, Treaty 6 - Good morning Kapaweno Nation welcome to day two of hockey, wall to wall in the great city of Edmonton. The U13 girls fought hard against Saddle Lake but came up short.

We have seven games on the schedule. Our student athletes with the support of family and friends will fight to the bitter end. Go muskwak!

Thank you to Hereditary Chief Sydney L. Halcrow, Lifetime Councillor Deb Chalifoux, Lifetime Councillor Pam Halcrow, and the Nation's staff for their great leadership and support during another successful trip to the Championships.

While it's an achievement that 3 out of the 5 teams brought home medals, the true essence of the tournament was found in the friendships made, family moments, and the passion for hockey that brought everyone together. For 35 years, this event has been a cornerstone for First Nation sports, celebrating unity and excellence in Native hockey across Alberta.

U11 Team: Foundation of Fun and Growth – The U11 squad embraced the balance of life long learning and fun. Facing well established teams, they experienced losses against Paddle Prairie (10-0) and Alexandra Braves (9-1) but celebrated a thrilling win with a score of 4-3. They wrapped up their journey against Siksika Braves with spirit, despite the 11-1 outcome. The growth was incredible, especially for players who started the season using chairs for support.

U13 Female: Determination to grow – Displaying resilience, the U13 Girls battled through initial setbacks against Saddle Lake (8-1), Siksika (10-0), and Edmonton Hurricanes (10-0). They bounced back with a 6-3 victory against a team from Edmonton but concluded with a challenging game against Swan River Selects (10-0). Their determination and team spirit were front and center throughout the weekend.

U15 Elite: Bronze Medal Triumph – In a dramatic showdown for the Bronze match up, having a solid 5-1 record, the U15 Elite faced Sunchild. After a nail-biting game, extended into a shootout, Matthias Willier stepped up to secure a decisive 5-4 victory and help to bring home a Bronze medal.

U18 B Team: Silver Medal Journey – After an impressive 5-0 run before the final game, the U18 B team encountered a closely fought match against Alexander Braves. The match ended in a 3-2 loss, earning them the Silver in the Eagle Bracket of the top U18 B Division.

U18 Elite: Bronze Battle – The U18 Elite's weekend culminated in a 7-2 record and finished in a hard fought battle in the Bronze Medal game. Their performance underscored the tenacity and teamwork synonymous with Kapawe'no Muskwak with a solid 7-3 win over neighbouring Métis community of Peavine.

The Alberta Native Hockey Championships were a very impressive showing of skill, culture, and nation pride. It goes beyond medals, creating lifelong memories and strengthening the bonds within the nations and communities.

Great work to all our players, parents, kokoms, moosoms and dedicated staff along with the staff/leaders at NAHC – Clyde Goodswimmer, Joseph Busch, Doug Chalifoux, Crystal Chalifoux and all the volunteers!

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Kapawe'no Muskwak U18E Claim Bronze

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – On Sunday, April 6, at 5:40 PM, the U18 Elite division's Bronze Medal game was fiercely contested. The Kapawe'no Muskwak faced a determined Peavine squad in a highly competitive match. The Muskwak came out strong, skating and hitting hard. Despite Peavine scoring early, causing the Muskwak to grip their sticks tightly, they quickly regrouped.

Once the Muskwak settled down, they tied the game and began to relax, showing intense skating, passing, and shooting. By the end of the second period, they led 4-2, though the game's outcome remained uncertain. In the third period, the boys took firm control, extending their lead to a commanding 7-3 before the final whistle, finishing the championship weekend with a 5-2 record. The Muskwak played with heart and truly deserved the bronze medal. Well done, Muskwak!

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Kapawe'no Muskwak U18 B Earn Silver

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – On Sunday, April 6, at 4 PM, after going 5-0 in the tournament, the Muskwak faced off against the Alexander Braves in the Eagle Bracket which ended in a close contested battle. The tension was high from the first whistle as both teams exchanged heavy hits and their fans cheered passionately.

Period one ended with the Braves leading 1-0. The Muskwak fought back and managed to score, pulling ahead to 2-1. The game was intense, with every inch of ice contested. As the clock ticked down in the final minutes, our boys were in relentless pursuit of their opponent. Despite their determined efforts, they came up just one goal short, finishing with a 3-2 loss. The team proudly earned a well-deserved silver medal.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Muskwak U18 Elite start off tournament with a hard fought win

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – The Kapawe'no Muskwak U18 Elite started the 2025 Alberta Native Hockey Championships with Game 1 on Thursday April 3 with an impressive victory over the Siksika team, winning 12-3. One of our key contributors to our offence is #29 Rowan McDonald scoring four goals. Curtez Giroux, assisted by Landon Bourque, netted the opening goal for the tournament.

The Kapawe'no Muskwak showcased strong offensive play and solid defense, with goalie Ryker Halcrow securing the win through a commendable performance.

Kapawe'no Muskwak U18E Stumble Against a Hot Goalie

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – They call it Sunday Funday, and making it to Sunday usually means you're in the playoffs. The Kapawe'no Muskwak started Game 6 strong against the Chiefs. Cassius McDonald put them on the scoreboard first in the first period, with assists from Maxwell Crier and Jacob Fleming.

However, the Chiefs quickly responded. Grady Wedman tied the game, and Carter Ellsworth followed with another goal. By the end of the first period, the Chiefs led 2-1, with the Muskwak outshooting them 25-12.

In the second period, the Chiefs extended their lead to 3-1, Muskwak doubling their shot count against the Chiefs. The third period saw the Chiefs solidify their dominance on the scoreboard with two more goals, further hindering the Muskwak's chances. Despite their strong efforts and a massive total shot count of 65-29, the Muskwak couldn't find the back of the net in the second or third periods.

Kapawe'no Muskwak Secures Thrilling Overtime Victory Against Sunchild

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – The start of the Alberta Native Hockey Provincinals kicked off for us with a close contest in Game 1, the U15 Elite Kapawe'no Muskwak faced off against Sunchild. Unlike their previous encounter with a mercy win in Lloydminster last weekend, this match was intense. Leading 4-2 in the third period, Kapawe'no Muskwak saw their advantage slip as Sunchild capitalized on a few fortunate bounces, tying the game.

In the sudden-death 3-on-3 overtime, Zhaine Arcand initiated a crucial play by setting up Zane Letendre, who executed a decisive move, scoring under the crossbar just 8 seconds into overtime, securing a vital first victory.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Weekend Highlights for Female Muskwak

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – The U13 girls played with determination this weekend. Despite initial losses to Saddle Lake (8-1), Siksika (10-0), and the Edmonton Hurricanes (10-0), they made a comeback, defeating Edmonton 6-3 on Saturday.

Muskwak player Faith Soosay-Bellerose stood out, showing great strength alongside her teammates. The coaches deserve praise for their dedication, guiding the team until the very end.

Thank you for representing our Kapawe'no Muskwak fully.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: The Kapawe'no Muskwak take Game 2 against Maskwacis Hawks

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – The Kapaweno Muskwak showcased an solid performance in the second game of the 2025 Alberta Native Hockey Championships, securing a win over the Maskwacis Hawks 10-1.

Key performers for the Muskwak U128 Elite included Tristan Savill with a hat trick and Rowan McDonald, who contributed significantly with two goals and two assists. The offensive play opened up as Kegan Power netted a decisive winning goal with assists from Kayden Sagmeister and Rowan McDonald. The Hawks managed a solitary goal in the game's final seconds.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Update from the Athletic Director

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – With the final game approaching on Saturday evening, Kapaweno First Nation and KFN Collegiate have proudly represented themselves throughout the event. There's a positive atmosphere around the provincials, with widespread recognition of Kapaweno First Nation's accomplishments. "I've engaged with coaches, players, competitors, parents, as well as our Hereditary Chief Halcrow this weekend; the feedback about our student-athletes' performance has been overwhelmingly positive", said Brian Thomas, KFN Collegiate's Athletic Director.

Participating in an event of this magnitude is vital for the growth of the KFN Collegiate, Hockey Academy and specifically Buffalo Bay Academy.

As we progress to the playoffs, we urge coaches to involve younger athletes in attending the games, learning from their more experienced peers. Congratulations to everyone, and thank you for helping elevate Kapaweno's standing in the provincials. "Remember, athletes, success begins with participation, and you've all demonstrated that commitment."

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Kapawe'no Muskwak U18 B Shine in Game 4 vs Frog Lake T-Birds

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – The Kapawe'no Muskwak U18 B team is making an impact at the 2025 Alberta Native Hockey Championships, showcasing their talent in Edmonton. They've maintained humility across the board, from players to coaches. In their latest match Game 4 in regulation play on Saturday, April 5, against Frog Lake T Birds, they secured a 6-0 victory. Travis Gullion's goal, assisted by Carson Stewart as game winner exemplifies their teamwork, with multiple contributors finding the back of the net.

Goalie Kale Cuthbert's exceptional performance resulted in another shutout, marking three consecutive games without conceding a goal. Their success is built on collective effort, with strong goaltending, robust defense, and dynamic forwards contributing to their remarkable performance.

Kapawe'no Muskwak U18B Dominates in Their First Native Alberta Hockey Provincials Opener

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – In a huge effort, the Kapawe'no Muskwak U18B secured a 7-2 victory over Peace River Snipers in their opening game of the Alberta Native Hockey Provincials. The team took a strong lead early, ending the first period up 4-1, and expanded their lead to 6-2 by the end of the second period. Number 8 Daniel Ferguson delivered a pivotal first goal, setting the foundation with the winning goal in the team's win.

Their impressive performance marked a significant win in their provincial campaign, setting a positive tone for the next game tonight at 6:45pm vs Kikino Red Army at the Booster Juice Arena.

Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite Triumphs Over Edmonton Voyagers Canada

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory - At the 2025 Alberta Native Hockey Championships in Edmonton, the Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite faced off in Game 2 against Edmonton Voyagers Canada on Friday, April 4 at the Bill Hunter Arena. Following three days of tryouts across Edmonton, Calgary, and North Battleford, over 250 kids competed, with the team heading to Germany to represent Canada's First Nations.

The game started with Edmonton Voyagers Canada scoring first, taking an early lead with a nice shot off the rush. However, the Muskwak quickly equalized with a great passing play within 30 seconds, never trailing again. The speed and strategic play had them chasing the Muskwak relentlessly, culminating in a 2-1 lead. In the second period, the Muskwak quick footwork drew a penalty, and the powerplay capitalized, increasing the lead to 3-1. Despite Canada's pressure in the third period, the stellar defense and goaltending of the Muskwak kept them at bay.

The persistent efforts forced another penalty, and the powerplay struck again, making it 4-1. Edmonton Voyagers Canada managed a late goal, bringing it to 4-2.

"Demonstrating true grit and skill, we closed out the game, even against their pulled goalie in a last-ditch effort," said Coach Ross Willier.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025: Kapawe'no Muskwak U18 B Keeps Rolling

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – Just like in Game 1, the Kapawe'no Muskwak dominated from the start. Despite some choppy play against them in Game 2, their performance was solid. In the first period, the Muskwak took the lead with a solo goal and effort by #9 Denny Halcrow-Lauck. By the end of the second period, they were up 3-0 and secured a 4-0 victory by the end of the game, with Kale Cuthbert earning a shutout with a very solid effort.

Coach Knibb defended the team during the rough play. "It's tough to see our players get roughed up. I will defend them to the end," he stated.

Alberta Native Hockey Championships 2025:

Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite Triumphs Over Edmonton Voyagers Canada

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – At the 2025 Alberta Native Hockey Championships in Edmonton, the Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite faced off in Game 2 against Edmonton Voyagers Canada on Friday, April 4 at the Bill Hunter Arena. Following three days of tryouts across Edmonton, Calgary, and North Battleford, over 250 kids competed, with the team heading to Germany to represent Canada's First Nations.

The game started with Edmonton Voyagers Canada scoring first, taking an early lead with a nice shot off the rush. However, the Muskwak quickly equalized with a great passing play within 30 seconds, never trailing again. The speed and strategic play had them chasing the Muskwak relentlessly, culminating in a 2-1 lead. In the second period, the Muskwak quick footwork drew a penalty, and the powerplay capitalized, increasing the lead to 3-1. Despite Canada's pressure in the third period, the stellar defense and goaltending of the Muskwak kept them at bay. The persistent efforts forced another penalty, and the powerplay struck again, making it 4-1. Edmonton Voyagers Canada managed a late goal, bringing it to 4-2. "Demonstrating true grit and skill, we closed out the game, even against their pulled goalie in a last-ditch effort," said Coach Ross Willier.

Lunchtime Thriller:

Kapawe'no vs Gift Lake, Muskwak U15 Elite Triumphs

Edmonton, Treaty 6 Territory – After a dominant first period leading by three goals, the Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite entered the break confidently. However, upon resuming play, individual performances and lack of puck-sharing led to a dramatic shift in the score during that period.

Once the coaches calmed the ship, the defense was ready to lead; the very explosive offense took charge, breaking the 4-4 tie with less than two minutes remaining. With a final score of 5-4, the Kapawe'no Muskwak U15 Elite boys might just earn the nickname "Cardiac Kids" for their thrilling finish.
